

Class Editori enters satellite radio

Milan, 08 May 2006

Class Editori debuts in the satellite radio sector, through the subsidiary New Satellite Radio, holder of a 35% stake in WorldSpace Italia Spa.

WorldSpace Italia Spa, which is controlled by WorldSpace Inc of Silver Spring (Maryland), listed at Nasdaq, has obtained by the Italian Communication Ministry the authorisation to start the activity of satellite radio.

"Italy is the first European country to start this innovative radio sector activity", said Luca Panerai, managing director for WorldSpace Italia.
